

- Common sense is expected
 - Example: Sizes and colors
- Interfaces development basis is expected
 - Focus on user experience
 - User orientation
 - On screen instructions
 - Controls enabling / disabling
 - Help
 - Overall (HTML file)
 - Products
 - Pop ups (? button)
 - Coins box
 - Tips (on focus)
 - Cards reader
- Language
 - At least, 2
 - Example: English and Spanish
 - Change
 - At any time
 - Instantaneously
- At least, 2 monetary units
 - Example: 50 cents €, 1 € and 2 €
- At least, 2 prices
 - Example: Standard and premium
- At least, 2 products with the same price
 - Example: Fanta - Orange and Fanta - Lemon
- Monetary units existence so that it is possible to evolve from the same initial state to different final states depending on credit and monetary unit
 - Example: Evolution from [No credit] to [No beverage] by inserting 50 cents € coin versus evolution from [No credit] to [Standard beverage] by inserting 2€ coin
- Cancellation availability at any time, excepting no credit or product choice
- Credit increase unavailability when credit equal or higher than maximum price
- Moving on unavailability until taking monetary units when cancellation or product choice
- Product unavailability until taking monetary units when change (price is lower than credit)
- Moving on unavailability until taking product
- No credit availability after product choice